QR Code Link to This Post I have 6 puppies that are looking for their forever homes that are ready to go now. They turned 8 weeks Monday November 27th. I have 3 boys and 3 girls. There is a rehoming fee of $400 to cover shots and cost of care. They have had their first set of puppy shots and have been dewormed. They are a mixed breed I like to call malkita Pitards. The mother is Akita/malamute and the father is pitbull/Saint Bernard. There is no holding, it's a first come first served basis. These are just in time for a wonderful Christmas present that will give all year for years to come. For a child, significant other, parent, grandparent, or just that one person who lives alone and needs a companion. They have been raised around dogs and children.

Vendors license # V03696

Here is a brief description of the pups:

Mr. Benjamin Buttons is a loving and affection loud mouth. He doesn't let you forget that he is there. He demands you pet him any time you walk by. He is noseey and inquisitive. He pays attention to EVERYTHING!

Sol is a very loving and sweet little girl. She can be rambunctious when she wants but also knows how to cuddle.

Wesley is our resident shy guy. He likes being in his puppy box unless he is with you! He needs someone whose going to help him break free from his shell. He is mostly black but has some white, including a small white heart on his belly to show you he has a heart full of love. He takes a little longer to warm up to you but once he has he loves your attention. He will make a wonderful loyal companion!

Baby is our runt of the litter. But don't let her size fool you! She may be half the size of her biggest sibling but she can take him down in seconds! She has the shortest fur but its soft as silk. She is beautifully marked with lights, darks and whites. She has a big personality for her small frame, definitely has little woman syndrome.

Cutey is a little girl. She has the darkest and shadiest fur of them all. She most looks like her mother. Her personality is like her mother. She is the soul of the litter. She is a good dog. She will sit and wait for you. But that doesn't mean she is a good girl because she pays attention to as much as you can.

Brady is a good ol' boy who likes attention. He is playful and mischievous, always pulling on your leg. He will be the perfect playmate!
