QR Code Link to This Post Male neutered pit bull went missing on Dec 4th around south gala drive. He has short stubby legs that are bow legged. His tail looks like he has chewed on it, also has tattoo from getting neutered. Please if you have seen or have him please contact me we are missing him dearly we just recently got him out of a bad situation, he's skinny due to stress from his previous home and just want him back to his new home please so we can take care of him!!

Please if you have him please let us have him back, please do not fight him, he is not a fighter! He's a big baby! We just want him back so he can get the love and care he needs!!
