QR Code Link to This Post Hello, names steve selling my 04 ford f150. This bad boy had only 108k miles on it. Seats are good no tears or noting. Only thing done to it is had costume built back seat to fit three twelves in back! Since i am a music enthusiast! I had this truck since 2010. Its a good running truck and all. I just recently bought a new ford truck so testing waters on selling it or keep it for work. Only thing it does need just recently brother took it for the weekend. After using it for moving came back and told me smoke comes out of vents when heat is on. Heats works just smokes. Mechanic says its heater core, part alone is 60 tops. Any questions number is text prefered, thank you again 4,500
