QR Code Link to This Post I have been feeding two kitties for several weeks and they have gotten used to me. I was able to bring one in from the cold rain last night. She is sweet as peaches and such a love! She may be pregnant. She needs a loving home and someone with the the ability to care for her and her potential babies. I would like whoever gets her to get her vet care and have her spayed when the time is right. I would like to see where she will be living and I will bring her to you. I will try to get the other kitty when this one has a loving home. Please call or text Patricia at .
