QR Code Link to This Post Please be kind - this is mom putting out a posting at the insistent request of special needs 18 yo son.

"I have $5 dollars. I'm looking to hire someone to be an administrative assistant or receptionist for my company, Lego, Inc. Duties include, answering the phone, transfer calls, train more staff. I need somebody to be responsible, on time, and always show up to your job."

This is mom again - Thanks for any responses. He's a very kind young man, with an active imagination. It would be amazing if someone responded to this, and we (parents) may be able to pay extra for hanging out! Not many peers for him to hang out with around here, unfortunately.
