QR Code Link to This Post My property is high (10,000 ft.) in the San Juan Mountains of SW Colorado. It is near (within 20 miles) of legendary Wolf Creek Pass. There is great seclusion and spectacular views, with plenty of large, mature trees (along with some meadow areas, which have the best views). It borders National Forest land on two sides. Good access, considering the remote location and the high elevation. Photos available on request. Email me or call/text at for more.
