QR Code Link to This Post Heylo! I am a 22 y/o table tennis professional looking for a roommate in our 3BR house. My roommate just accepted a new job in California and is moving 3rd week of December. So, I need to find a new roommate that can move in as soon as December 21st. The apartment comes with a washer and a dryer, utilities included in the rent. The Bedroom is spacious & has a good-sized walk-in closet. This was a new town house built October'16. Safe and very good community. Perfect for a single guy having grocery, gym and healthcare units nearby. A little about your roommates: myself table tennis coach and I have a software professional (23) living with me. We are friendly and welcoming. No smoking inside the house, but in the balcony is fine. Please google the location, you will not dislike after taking a look at my house as we keep it very clean and organized. I am flexible with the lease having it month-month basis. Call or text if you are interested. for more.
