I'm Lee, but you can call me LeeRoy, or if any "bad guys" show up you can call me "Bruce LeeRoy".

I love cars, car stuff, bikes, trucks, anything w/ wheels, & fixing stuff.

But I have a real Problem, his name is: Old Man WINTER...

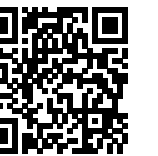

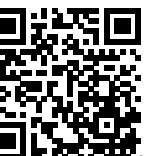

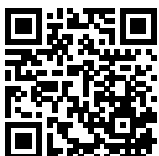

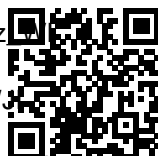

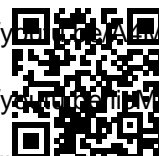

I have a good place to work on cars, just NOT in the cold weather. So if you have a real garage you don't use much I'd love to "borrow" it just once in a while.

I have 1 urgent job that needs to be done ASAP, preferably tomorrow that hopefully won't take any longer than 3-4 hours, maybe less, but I'm being realistic w/ that time estimate.

Just need to replace 4 tie rods/ends on an old 2002 Toyota Camry.

For this Urgent/ASAP job & since its so friggin' Cold; we may be willing to pay a few $ dollars for your hospitality.

For more long term I'd be willing to do some bartering if you don't like to fool w/ cars & such. I hate to see people getting ripped off & doing dumb stuff to their cars (like using water-thin/winter oil during the summer). I don't mind doing oil changes, tune ups, brake jobs & some other stuff.

I also like to fix anything mechanical/electrical, so if you have any devices that need TLC/repair, don't hesitate to ask me about it. Before you throw it out, give me a shout thanks,
