Me and a friend need a ride as south as possible, leaving anytime after 3pm Tuesday. I guess Wednesday morning would be best. Looking to get to SF, but anywhere south of WA will do the trick.

We're both early 20s, one boy one girl. We both travel very light, one backpack and small instrument each. No bugs no drugs no drama. I can contribute to expenses but I really don't have a lot money to spare right now. However I can provide snacks and entertainment as well.

Let me know!!! This could end up being a fun and/or life changing experience for you. And you'd really be helping us.
