This is the only place for your child to explore and learn about pianos and music while learning with other youth ages 10-18. We offer a noncompetitive environment with a disciplined and creative approach to learning and exploring classical music. Counterpoint, composing and musical theory are taught.

While the class is free, your child is required to have a qualified regular teacher with lessons on a weekly basis. We offer lessons at $25 per 45 minutes if your child does not have a regular teacher.

If you would like to donate an exceptional piano to a joyful cause, we can provide a tax write off receipt that is usable in the next 5 years. We also provide receipts for estates directly to offset estate taxes.
