QR Code Link to This Post Hey I'm James and have been layoff from VC Summer over 2 months ago. Been doing small jobs to feed us and try to stay a float. I take great pride and it takes a lot out of me to do this or ask for help. My wife and I would be grateful for any kinda help to bring them Christmas. Not asking for much. Just what ever a person can do. It hurts so bed to hear them talk about santa and all things they want, knowing they not going to get it.. It takes all your man hood away. I'm a grow man and say I'm tough but this had broke me down to where I cry myself asleep every night. I don't want no big deal or anything just a outfit size 6 and size 8 in girls . Maybe a baby doll idk what to say or ask. A pray for my family and me is needed. Thank.
