News Anchors are expected to be able to read scripts from a teleprompter, laptop computer or on paper. These news feeds would be happening at most twice a day on the network. News would be read from the comfort of your house or office behind a Green Screen from anywhere in the United States.

A mastery of the English Language is a must and being eloquent and articulate is a plus.

This is not a paid assignment but if selected, we would make available to you all episodes of your work with us through a web link or YouTube link to use as needed.
