QR Code Link to This Post I'm looking for a puppy that's no more then $75-free. I have a big back yard just one child and one otw so I'm looking for a puppy that can grow with them. I already have a vet pick out and all the supplies. I would prefer a male !!! && he will be getting snipped so I'm not a breeder. I'm just looking for a Christmas puppy that will truly have a forever home ! && I dnt want much on the asking price due to the fact half of y'all are backyard/project breeders. I understand the hustle but I'm not trying to pay your bills ! So if you really want your puppy in a forever home we are you he family for!
