

This large and spacious apartment has all the charm of the brownstone buildings with it high ceilings and beautiful hardwood floors. You enter the unit and the three bedrooms are in the front of the building. All have nice hardwood floors and get a lot of natural light. There is one in the front that has the bay windows facing the street. This room has a large walk in closet that is in the hallway. The other front bedroom gets a ton of sun too and has its large closet in the room. The third bedroom has windows that face towards the side of the building but still get some good light. There are two good sized closets in that room. In the hallway there is another large walk in closet that can be used for storage as well as a coat closet. There are drawers in the closet as well as shelving that offer you a ton of space. All of this is off of a wide hallway. Heading towards the back of the building you pass the good sized bathroom with the fully tiled shower and a modern vanity but still maintains the charm of the bathroom as it was originally styled. Next you head into the living room that has the beautiful exposed wood wainscoting that goes three quarters of the way up the wall. This room used to be a formal dining room and is huge. There is a gorgeous hutch in one corner with leaded glass doors. Talk about style. There is also a stunning butler's pantry between this room and the kitchen that gives you a ton more storage in the unit. Heading into the kitchen you have nice custom cabinets and another pantry for storage. There are stainless steel appliances that include a dishwasher, gas range and oven and fridge. The kitchen is an eat in kitchen with plenty of room for a table and chairs. There is also access to a porch for the sole use of this unit. The building has laundry in the basement and is just waiting for you to call it home.
