I'm a former "stay at home" dad who is currently available to help you part-time with your kid(s) and/or pets or elderly relative. I can be a babysitter / daycare / childcare or even limited elderly care provider in your home possibly saving you time and money. Your kid(s) get to be HOME in their own safe environment... You won't have to transport your kid(s) back and forth to school or daycare & no late fees.

I welcome the opportunity to have your kid(s) monitored and possibly communicate with you through the use of inexpensive, legal monitoring devices / cameras for your home if you choose to.

Bottom line: You set the hours you need and not restricted by some daycare place that is probably also closed on weekends...

My home may be available for short term use.

MY SERVICES INCLUDE:

- *Transportation to/from school or other events.
- *Hygiene and care for the youngsters or elderly who need assistance.
- *I can help with homework and tutoring / lessons/projects, hobbies, entertainment, story time at home or local library, field trips and physical activities (including sports).
- *Assist in homeschool situations.
- *Keeping family schedules on track with assistance in morning rush times (feeding, dressing, lunch prep., traffic)
- *Supporter of Big Brothers Program and can help mentor where needed.
- *Help with driving lessons for teenagers

[illegible]

laundry / pet care (i love cats & dogs, etc.) / yard - lawn work (i own a lawnmower) - maintenance, grocery shopping, etc.

My rates vary from $6.00 to $30.00 per hour depending somewhat on the time-length of service needed.

I look forward to hearing from you and meeting you with your family.
The initial first call and/or get-together are free of charge for up to an hour.

Dave
