QR Code Link to This Post Interested in starting either a an original band or a hybrid cover/original band to play dives or practice till we get there. Have a handful of original songs written but need some proper musicians to fill them out. Could possibly do some track trading online if you want to try to create a drum line/bass line/ guitar part for some of the stuff i'm working on. Solid Midrange tones with alot of power and ability to handle run's well. Very chill personality, easy to work with, been singing since i was in the 3rd grade. It's a passion for me and i want to get back to it. Alt rock is my wheelhouse but i'm comfortable with a wide variety of pop music, folk and classic as well if it's got a good hook i can sing.

Interests are pretty diverse but here's a sampling of stuff i like to sing, 90's Alternative, Soundgarden, AIC, Faith no more, Red Fang, incubus, soul coughing, johnny lee hooker, tom waits, Black flag/rollins band, megadeth, queens of the stone age, G love, NIN, Ben kweller, ben folds five, and too many more to list/think of.
