QR Code Link to This Post Hello. I was wondering if there was a female who wanted to chill tonight. I'm a business professional, British guy. I don't have any plans and was looking to find someone to chat with, few drinks, and listen to music. Very laid back, drama free and expect the same. To encourage interest, I will pay seventy five for your time. I was looking for sometime around 9pm til 11pm. I live in a nice neighborhood :)
