  QR Code Link to This Post I have a Calico Cat free to a good home. She is around 10 years old and has been spayed. The reason I am rehoming her is because she does not get along with my other cats and she can be quite aggressive to people as well. She has bitten me at least four times. I am not one to lie, so I'll be straight with this post in the hope of finding someone that will take her, be good to her and perhaps give her what she needs. This cat is overweight because of having been fed human food, she was given to me by a friend and I have tried everything I know to help her. She is simply not happy here with me and I want her to go to a home where she will be happy.

  She needs to be in a home where she can be kept indoors, preferably where she is the only cat in the home and can just hang out. She doesn't mind being petted some but she usually will let you know with a look or a hiss when she's had enough and wants to be left alone. At times she'll even want to sit on your lap or lie in bed with you and she's fine with that. She's just older and is your typical older feline. Definitely not a good cat to have in a home with very young children.

  I have not posted pictures on here but will send them through email if you are interested. Please respond by email only.

  Thank.
