QR Code Link to This Post Just looking to have some fun jamming, possibly gigging if it ever comes to it. If you love to play anything old and can atleast hold your own with your instrument of choice that would be great. I don't except you to play anything note for note (and don't expect me to either for that matter.) Text me if your interested

- Beatles
- Led Zeppelin
- The Doors
- The Who
- Anything from that!
