QR Code Link to This Post she is the white/black one I had posted as a good mouser. think she is pregnant as she was eating like a bootless pit and had started to growl when you pet her side/stomach.she still let us pick her up and carry her around.wanted to get her spayed in December but didn't know if she will be too far along to have it done.thought maybe some kind hearted person would want to help her out at their place.My siamese will not let her stay inside.she was living in a box on my front patio.she is a left behind pet not a feral cat so she was having a hard time out there.I was advertising for any experienced cat people to help her as we are on ss and don't have the funds or room for her to have her kittens here safely.WELL a woman showed up gave me $5 for her (to make sure she was not bait)then emailed me the next day and said she had let her go in Slavic Village.but not to worry as she did it the block behind where the animal Group there's building.so that would be behind 64th street.the street where thr Red Chimney restaurant is and down that side street off fleet for 2 blocks.have looked for her but can't find her.if you have and want to keep her that would be Ok too.just want to know she is safe.The woman said she had been watching my cat/kitten posts all year and decided I was a cat hoarder.I told her I had placed 14 felines this year in good homes.I only have 1 cat in my house.Her name is Pandora and she answers to it.the weather has gotten really bad out there now she is lost in it.Thanks a lot you stupid.
