* To Clean & Maintain finished Tub *

- Use Only Regular Blue Windex, Lysol Tub/Tile Cleaner, mild Soap or Baking soda. Soft Sponges and Soft Cloths to clean and dry.
- On occasion use Car Wax and Polishing products to protect surface. This will help prevent soap scum from building up and keep a nice smooth shine finish. Use such as Mothers Wax, Turtle, Meguiars, ...ETC.
- No more need to use harsh Chemicals or scrubbing!

** BE CAREFUL OF ANY TUBS OR SINKS ( RESTORED , REFINISHED , REGLAZED ) SELLING AT VERY LOW PRICES... THE PROPER MATERIALS USED TO RESTORE THEM ARE VERY EXPENSIVE AND THE TIME IT TAKES TO PREP & REFINISH CAN TAKE MANY DAYS UP TO MANY WEEKS!
> NOT 2 - 24 HOURS <

SO IT IS IN MY PROFESSIONAL OPINION ANY SELLING FOR LESS ARE NOT PREPARED PROPERLY, NOT REFINISHED WITH THE RIGHT MATERIALS AND WILL NOT LAST MORE THAN A YEAR.

IVE REDONE MANY TUBS & SINKS THAT WERE REFINISHED BY OTHER REFINISHERS OR CUSTOMERS WHO BOUGHT THE DO IT YOURSELF REFINISH KITS FROM A STORE LIKE HOME DEPOT.
YOU WILL ONLY END UP SPENDING MUCH MORE $$$ IN THE SHORT RUN.

***PLEASE NOTE*** There are individuals on Craig's List trying to sell their tubs in the original condition. And although they claim that their tubs are in "excellent" condition, you need to realize that original condition is NOT excellent condition. Just because a tub doesn't have rust or chips does NOT make it in EXCELLENT condition. It is still going to show signs of wear over the last 100 years. It will likely be dingy, yellowed and dull compared to the bright, white and glossy appearance of a refinished tub. Send Me your questions.. I will be happy to answer them whether you buy from me or not.

WORD OF CAUTION: Whatever you do... DO NOT buy a claw foot tub w/ missing, broken or non-original feet!!! There are literally hundreds of different feet and they all fit just a bit differently on each tub. The curve of each tub is unique on the bottom and the feet attach in varying ways. Feet are not all interchangeable ... so if a tub has missing or broken feet ... don't buy it!

Regarding "SLIPPER" style tubs ( High Back ).....the truth is that they were never antiques at all, they are just something someone thought up for the movies and decorating magazines. They were never produced 100 years ago and are just something that is manufactured today. Unfortunately, slipper style tubs along with other new antique looking tubs are generally made from acrylic fiberglass or cheap cast iron from china and in my opinion, they are horrible products. They tend to crack ( spider cracks ) , craze, discolor and stain easily. They are also extremely flimsy, light weight and don't retain heat at all like the early century cast iron tubs do. Acrylic or fiberglass tubs & sinks are cheap, usually foreign made and do not last. Even new cast iron clawfoot tubs are made with a very thin or cheap cast metal not like the thick casting on the tubs made back in the early to mid 1900s. They all carry a host of other issues as well. So if you have your heart set on a slipper style or any other new type tub rather than a traditional claw foot... you will most likely need to go the newer tub route.

So if you want a traditional custom restored genuine antique style claw foot tub, I can definitely help you with that!

That is why I am known as The Tub King =)
