QR Code Link to This Post Back in Portland looking to work with local photography models over the next week and a half, ending my trip on the 17th. I'm seeking art nude models (preferably with experience) who are interested in posing for 1-2 hour sessions downtown. I've also been granted access to a couple of rad outdoor locations if that better suites your style. I have multiple projects to work on while I am here, so I am not seeking a specific look. I'd like to network with as many locals as possible as I will be back in the spring. Most of my current projects are socially driven, but I am looking to complete some abstract/unsettling works. For models who are willing to get a little messy with dark and disturbing (nothing sinister, I promise), please let me know.

When replying, please include your basic info as well as contact information and the best time you are able to be reached. The more info you provide upfront, the faster this will move along, and the more appreciative I'll be. As always, I can provide links to my work and professional references. Replies of only "I'm interested" will be ignored. Kind!
