Thankyou for your interest in Montessori Preschool child care. My name is Elia Cobb and for over 20 years, I have been dedicated to the development and care of infants and toddlers. I have also worked for various institutions, one of them Montessori Mexico, where for 4 years I gained extensive experience developing the Montessori method, which involves a broad view of education as an aid to life. It is designed to help children with their internal development as they grow from childhood to maturity.

LEARNING

The Montessori Method

Dr. Maria Montessori is the founder of the Montessori Method of teaching. Her life was dedicated to improving the education of children, and began with the early observation that every child spontaneously wants to learn. By the time she passed away, her method was being taught successfully throughout the world.

The Montessori Method is not just a curriculum; it's a way of life. The Montessori environment supports a child's natural tendencies to discover his or her own personality, talents, and needs, as well as respecting each child's choices and interests. The classroom supports freedom of movement -- children learn to take care of themselves as well as their environment, and they learn at their own pace. Montessori addresses the academic, social, and emotional needs of children.

I can't think of a better place for our children. Zach and Annie have not only been safe in Elia and Randy's care, but they have been educated and nurtured and loved. And they've had so much fun! What more could parents ask for their little ones? I highly recommend this program and these people and can't say enough about Montessori Preschool Children.
