QR Code Link to This Post Pro drummer, teacher, and author Todd Bishop is now accepting new drumming students. All levels and ages 5th grade and up are welcome-- we appreciate a challenge, so if you feel there's something about drumming you're just not getting, we encourage you to get in touch.

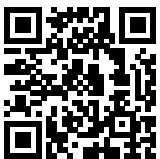

The studio is located in Kenton in North Portland, 12 minutes from downtown. We will teach at the student's home for an extra charge.

Call or text , or hit the email link above to schedule a free 30-minute drum lesson, and you can see if our approach is right for you. We've gotten excellent results with students of all ages, levels of experience, and goals, both professional and creative, and we think you'll find studying with us to be challenging and rewarding.

Visit PDXdrummer.com for more information.

Also visit Cruiseshipdrummer.com for free drum exercises, grooves, transcriptions, and more!

Todd Bishop is a personable individual and has been a professional drummer and teacher for over 25 years. He is trained in jazz, classical, and marching percussion, and has field experience in a wide range of styles. He is the author of the popular Cruise Ship Drummer! drumming blog, and five related books, and has had educational pieces published in Drum!, a major drumming magazine. He has produced six CDs on Seattle's Origin Records, and for independent release. He currently leads the Todd Bishop Group, a jazz quartet which will be making a fifth tour of Europe in the spring of 2015. He has taught in association with public and private schools in Portland, Vancouver, and.
