QR Code Link to This Post My wife and I are looking for a traditional surrogate (natural insemination preferred) to have our second child with. We ran into several problems with female infertility and pregnancy issues with the birth of our first child and would really like to not have to go through that again. We are looking for a woman in good health, a non-smoker, and willing to lay off caffeine for the duration of the pregnancy. Please let us know if you're
