QR Code Link to This Post Craigslist of late has turned into a cesspool of backyard breeders. If you see a puppy or kitten with a "rehoming fee" of $200+ (many of which I have seen are $500 or more) THINK AGAIN!

Normally, when someone accidentally has kittens or puppies, they try to get rid of them to good homes for maybe $20-30 or free. If they're not offered with vaccinations, vet checks, flea medication, or something else, then they are NOT worth hundreds of dollars and they were probably born of incest. This is why there are so many sick animals littering animal shelters.

Two alternatives:

- 1) Seek a professional breeder who cares for their animals and ensures health, safety, and a quality bloodline (ie: no incest)
- 2) Adopt from the many, many pets available in shelters.

Every puppy or kitten you buy from these scumbags encourages them to continue to do this. REPORT!
