QR Code Link to This Post Hi guys! My name is alexandra and I'm looking for a friend. My roommate has been out of town and won't be back for the next few weeks and I have found myself longing for company! I enjoy sitting on the porch swing, drinking coffee (and other things ;P), watching movies (any kinds but especially anime xD), and just talking and getting to know each other! I've got a freezer full of frozen corndogs and endless bottles of ketchup so seriously hit me up if you're down for dinner (or breakfast). I would love some human interaction time and to potentially build a life-long.
