QR Code Link to This Post Gizmo is a 12 www old Maltese that was pulled from a Shelter. He has just had full blood work done (all normal), neutered and a full dental which 9 teeth were pulled (he has about 20 real good ones left.) Gizmo feels much better now and has no health issues at this time. He is spunky and loves going for walks. Gizmo is quirky, extra smart, talkative and kinda bossy. He tries to get you over to the cookie jar to give him treats. He can be very sweet and extremely affectionate but he is skeptical at first. Once he totally trusts you he will let his guard down. Gizmo is looking to share a special bond with someone and it can not be me. He needs a home without children.

If you are interested in Gizmo please text do email @ I will bring Gizmo to your home/vet references are needed to
