

Help needed for three kids this holiday season (La Mirada)

hide this posting

Location California https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-780245-z

QR Code Link to This Post Please join me and helping these three children and their parents who have relocated here from Texas and fallen on harder times than expected leaving all their money to go to hotels food and school supply at best join me and gifting these children with a Christmas this year as they have no tree no stockings no gifts nothing that resembles Christmas or Humanity let's prove to them that Santa Claus is real and he'll find them anywhere they are let's prevent these poor babies from going into adulthood remembering all the pain and the sorrow and replace it with faith in humanity I understand it's hard for everybody as I struggle horrific Lee myself but my struggles in comparison to three young children there nothing I couldn't imagine what it would be like had my Christmas Memories been taken from me I mean after all don't we all have to remember it's about the kids the kids are our future let's show them they're still love out

