QR Code Link to This Post Someone posted about an hour ago that a black kitty had been hit by a car on E. Florida and Jersey Wy. I suggested someone at least get it out of the street. It needs to be taken to DDFL so they can get it into their system if anyone is looking for it and also to check for a microchip. If it's still on the street tomorrow I will pick it up and take to DDFL. Hope someone does it sooner and claim their kitty. PLEASE KEEP YOUR CATS!
