QR Code Link to This Post I'm an older "new" drummer and I'm just looking for some musicians to get together with and play some music. Nothing fancy. No great expectations or skills needed (I've only been playing since Oct. 2016 so I've got loads of room to improve!). Just looking to have fun and to enjoy the live experience of playing with other musicians.

I'm into all kinds of music, but my main influence is rock, starting with The Beatles and moving through Zeppelin, Nirvana, Springsteen and on.

Let's get together, have a few beers (or whatever your preferred poison may be) and have some!
