You honor YOUR president, because no one else will. Just wait until all the truth comes out about him and his friends in Moscow and all the russian connections that he and all his pals in his most corrupt cabinet really are.

The republican CULT will be out of politics and into the sewer where you all belong for decades.

Tell us again, just why is it that nearly everyone that Trump deals with has some type of connection with Russia. For your info, this is not normal and dealing with the ENEMY is TREASON of the highest order. That is your sad disgusting excuse for that pile of shit that keeps stinking up our White House,

Oh yea, you can take your racism and hate for those who are not just like you and stuff it up your ass along with.
