I got her very recently from a friend of a friend that found her outside up near Columbus. The guy that looked after her during that time said she was fine with his dog but they never had another cat around so we're unsure if she's okay with other cats. She loves lounging around and cuddling. She's a great cat but I realized soon after I got her that I am a bit too busy to take good care of her so I am hoping to find her a loving home that can do that for her. She is spayed and up to date with her shots. Along with her, I can give you her bed (shown in the picture), a litter box, scratching post, her toy, bowls, and any leftover food and litter. I would like a rehoming fee since I paid for her shots and for her to get.
