QR Code Link to This Post I am trying to find a new home for my daughters Yorkie. She is about 3 years old and is full grown. She weighs 4 pounds and is caught up on all her shots. She has been fixed. She has no health issues and is very loving. She needs to go to someone who will have plenty of time for her. She will go potty outside if you take her out. If you are interested in her please contact me. There will be a small re-homing fee. Please only contact me if you are serious.
