QR Code Link to This Post Taking normal instruments and stripping them to let the natural wood shine through. I've been doing this to my own instruments for several years and would be more than happy to help other folks get the natural look in their own instruments. From guitars, to banjos, to basses. I even handmake my own guitars in the form of gas can electric guitars and would be happy to help craft a one-of-a-kind unique instrument for you or someone you love. Prices vary depending on what I'm asked to do, so don't worry, the $500 mark isn't set in stone. Keep me in mind for anything that you want to turn into some sort of Frankenstein creature of an instrument. More examples available on Instagram at
