QR Code Link to This Post Child care can be stressful to find the right fit for your family. There never seems to be the right amount of flexibility with centers or home day care providers. You have sick days, morning and evening commute, and the set hours you have to stretch yourself to achieve.

Imagine having an au pair, who can provide up to 45 hours of live in child care, they help with children's laundry, light housekeeping, meal preparation, homework/tutoring, transportation, and much more. Au pairs can make your busy live much more manageable. They also expose your child to a new culture and language. An au pair is many times described by our host families as a part of the family.

Find out how having an au pair could work for your family: at www. goaupair. com or call me the local area representative, Tessa at . Ask about how to get a discount off your placement fees.
