QR Code Link to This Post 2007 red Mitsubishi Endeavor with 147k miles for sale, have had the vehicle since 2014 and now have no need for it since we have bought a van. The vehicle has been really well maintained and a very easy vehicle to own. AC was redone at 124,100 and a longer tube added at 134,277 to help it drain. Brake pads front were replaced at 132,321. Rear pads and rotors were replaced this year as well. Air filter was replaced at 139,010 miles. Transmission was serviced with a drain and fill at 139,722. Battery was replaced back in 2016 and the tires are only a couple of years old. Everything else has been routine maintenance with oil being changed every 6 months or 5-6k miles. Car is washed weekly and every year it is polished and waxed, interior leather is cleaned and conditioned each year. I have title in hand and am asking $6,000 OBO, if interested you can text me at , car is sold as is and at a first come first serve basis. Cross
