QR Code Link to This Post I came to this site in the hopes of finding a serviceable companion for my disabilities. As someone who is disabled, I have a limited income to work with. I don't have the ability to cater to these greedy people, who think multiple hundreds of dollars is "reasonable". I didn't realize that animal companionship was solely for the elite.

At any rate, maybe there is someone who could show some kindness and help me out. That would be great.

Edit I forgot to point out that I am searching for a dog - preferably a puppy, as he/she needs to be trained to serve my specific needs, and that bonding goes a long way toward the trust needed between myself and my service.
