QR Code Link to This Post This guy has over 30 postings on here . He wants to buy everything you have. Of course he won't pay you anything for it . telling you its old and beat up so its not worth much . But right after he cons you out of your things he will immediately post it on eBay saying how rare it is and how nice it is . Just put in the cl search box and you will find most of his ads but remember he's sneaky and also spells out some of the numbers to try to be even more sneaky and hide from people he has taken advantage of. Look on ebay before you sell your things so you don't get taken advantage.
