QR Code Link to This Post Guitarist/backing vocalist looking for like minded heavy music bandies. I'm Early 50's and have been playing in bands all my life, both cover and original. I have lots of original material on the back burner if needed to start the ball rolling and for examples of my playing but looking to write and record with laid back creative guys who enjoy writing music and having cool shit of their own... I like heavy but I'm open to other stuff also.. I have time for a band to the extent of: regular weekly practices and local shows (not interested in touring..) looking for similarly committed ppl... Hit me up if you want to chat. Text or email.. whatever....

Thanks for
