QR Code Link to This Post Three beautiful, polydactyl(double pawed) black cats need forever homes. These three were rescued from the cold and unfortunately they, 1.) Are not liked by my two forever felines and 2.) can't come with me when I move coming up soon. They are two males and one female. I am honestly not sure of their spay/neuter status as they have not been to the vet yet. The two boys seem younger than the female and I think the female MAY be pregnant. Not 100% sure of that yet. If they don't get adopted this week, she will be brought to the vet early next week to be sure and if not, get spayed.

1-female has a little white on neck/chest and

2-male #1 has longer fur than the others, giant paws, ALL black and mesmerizing

3- male #2 is all black as well, with slightly shorter fur, a little more playful and two amazingly cute white whiskers that kind of look like a mustache!

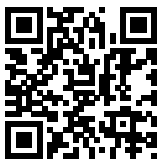

All three are VERY loving and EXUDE personality. They are calm, very friendly and all use the litter box. All three are double pawed and the one male with longer-ish fur has enormous double-double paws! They have been around children and have been absolutely wonderful with them. They have not met any dogs yet, as far as I'm aware of.

I'm looking to see these three beautiful cats in a forever home. As much as I want it to be mine, that just can't happen. But they definitely have the potential to make one (or three) families very happy. Please reply to this ad, or TEXT (I work a lot and can't always answer/talk on the phone) to inquire.

I WILL NOT let the cats go to anyone who seems like they may have nefarious intentions! Animals deserve love, nothing less. Thank you for looking. Happy!
