Built in 1901, this beautiful property is being prepared for the market! Featuring four bedrooms built on brick and stone foundation, this large home has a renovated kitchen, lots of hardwood, period details throughout the home --including unique built-ins-- and a beautifully updated master bedroom with bath. With a wood stove in the basement and a pellet stove on the main floor, you are bound to stay extra warm this winter. This house not only has income potential, but a two-car garage and is located just a short distance to downtown! Stay tuned for more details!
