Event Listings 12-8-17

Dear Friends,

So how was everyone's week? How are your holiday preparations coming along? I got all the gifts bought for my boys and Jeremy got all our outdoor lights up. This weekend is when the local fire department has Santa come and then they drive around all over town with Santa and blowing sirens and such. There are several local towns that do that. So what about you what have you got done and what still needs to be done?

With Love and in the Light, Cassie
