QR Code Link to This Post Luna is a super sweet creature. We took her in to help, and she's great.

The reason I'd like to re-home her is due to the fact that we are all in college. We can't seem to fit her schedule. I would really love for her to have a buddy. We get her out all the time, she's rarely hissed if ever.

I'm asking 100$ just her, (or best offer I suppose), or $150 for her and her cage. She will go home with all basic!
