QR Code Link to This Post I had a past puppy from my very first litter returned to me today due to very unfortunate circumstances and he is now looking for his forever home. Capone is a very clumsy, playful, happy-go-lucky guy who loves to roughhouse and he accidentally stepped on his little 8 lb dog-brother and severely injured him, which led to euthanasia... Capone needs to go to a home with no small dogs (I would prefer no dogs at all), and no infant children (because he is a clumsy puppy). Capone is already neutered, dewclaws removed, microchipped and will be spending the time he has here with me refreshing his basic training. He is CGC (Canine Good Citizen) certified and he is a very good boy. Capone will be 2 in March. He is an incredibly sweet boy and well-behaved. His Rehoming fee will be $1200, but I can lower that to $1000 if he finds his new home before Christmas. Please help me find Capone his forever home!

Side note: the price is not up for debate. $1000 is a fair price for a Dane. Naysayers can move.
