QR Code Link to This Post Hey, I'm a bass player who's looking to form a pop punk/punk band to play mostly originals with a cover or two. I have bass and guitar parts to a few songs written and ready to play. I've played in bands before, mostly playing guitar, however, I want to play bass in a band now. I'm really open to what kind of stuff we'll do, but I want to keep it within the punk rock genres. I have a spot we could likely practice.
