QR Code Link to This Post I'm looking for athletic young men from the fitness industry or those who just play a lot of sport, for male fitness modelling work, based around one of your main sports or with a gym theme.

I'm currently working on a series of male portraits and am looking for subjects. This series is an exploration on photographing the male form (Fitness, face portrait, underwear, implied nude, hardcore style, casual, body art) Must be comfortable with their own skin

Professional Photographer since 2007 and is always seeking new faces for various well done projects. It is more important you are in great shape than have previous modelling experience.

This is NOT a paid gig, this is a voluntary project and compensation will be in the form of digital copies of the photos. Also this isn't a porn gig, I'm actually a good photographer .

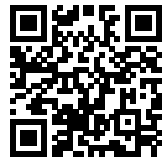

If you are interested in modeling for this series please shoot me a message that includes photographs of you, and your.
