My rates are reasonable and I take extreme pride in what I do. Physical action is always the last resort. I'm experienced in club security, bouncing, home protection, escorting, etc. Having excellent communication skills is key when being a trained security officer which separates myself from the rest. No matter what your situation may be if you require protection for yourself or business establishment allow myself to assist you. My schedule is very flexible, and I enjoy building relationships. My objective is to make sure that you or your establishment is safe, comfortable, and 100% satisfied with my service. If you are a private person and need extra added security for shows, venues, etc, I'm also here to assist you. If interested would you kindly reply back with the matter at hand and I'll be more than happy to assist you? My model is safety, respect, courtesy, diligence, firmness, and physical action is always the last resort call me or text me or visit my website <http://www.nynightlifesecurity/>
