QR Code Link to This Post We are looking for childcare starting in March 2018 for an infant aged 6-8 weeks old. We live in Midtown East, but also have an apartment in a walk-up building on the Upper East Side.

You would live in our Upper East Side place, rent free. You will have one of the bedrooms and access to a shared full kitchen & bathroom. The other room is occupied by a housemate, who is older, a professional (attorney), a very close friend of ours and very nice. We are looking for experienced, trained childcare at a reasonable hourly rate -but we are not considering rates much above $14 per hour. This is especially so because we are offering housing (and we may go somewhat higher if you do not need housing).

You would provide childcare during the day at our Midtown apartment. You must have some experience and training to show that you can adequately care for an infant. Hours will be around 10:30am to 7pm from Monday through Friday, with some flexibility for both us and for you. Service is not usually required on weekends.

Please get in touch with us if this interests you. In order for you to get a full sense of what the arrangement would be like, we would like to begin with an in-person interview. This will give us both an opportunity to get to know each other, and also give you an idea of what it would be like living in the Upper East Side while working in Midtown -it is a very easy commute.

*Please include your contact information, which will be necessary for arranging an interview in December. Provide to us your salary requirements or indicate your financial considerations, taking into account that a room is provided for you. And lastly, please indicate in your email that you are aware that this position does not begin until March. Without all of these, we may not respond to you. Thank.
