QR Code Link to This Post We just came through my father having 24-48 hours to live to taking him home today with hospice in place.

We are broke, behind on our bills and now face the inevitable as never before.

Dad's life insurance policy was squandered by a sibling and we have been paying on a crematory plan.

The representative that sold me on the plan deceived me. At the moment that dad takes his last breath, a balance of around $1200 must be paid.

Please help in any way you can...

Thank You Very Much
